NEWS RELEASE

Teen Two Day Backpacking Trip – September 29 - 30

Durango, CO: The Durango Parks and Recreation in partnership with San Juan Mountain Association is offering a two-day backpacking trip for teens, 13 - 17 years old. MK Gunn, a certified interpretive guide with San Juan Mountain Association will lead the out and back trip along the First Fork Trail along the Piedra River and will include nature lessons and time for quiet self-reflection in the wild.

Trip length is dependent on the abilities of the group and will be approximately 4 - 7 miles each day. This trip is designed to teach kids how to backpack and participants must be able to carry their gear.

More details on the trip, a waiver form, as well as the gear list is available at:

www.durangogov.org/ParksandRec

Registration for this program can be on-line at www.durangogov.org/register4rec or in person at the Recreation Center, Chapman Hill and Durango Gymnastics. Please call the Parks and Recreation Department at 375-7300 with any questions regarding upcoming programs and events.
