NEWS RELEASE

DGOV to broadcast Colorado Governor's Debate live and RMPBS Election Shows

Durango, CO: Residents across much of Southwest Colorado can watch as the Republican and Democratic candidates for Colorado Governor debate the issues in Fort Collins. Durango Government Television (DGOV) will carry "9News Decision 2018: The Race for Governor" live Wednesday, October 17th from 7-8 p.m.

In addition, DGOV will carry three Rocky Mountain PBS Programs on candidates and issues, at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday through Sunday and at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday & Saturday as listed below. These special editions of RMPBS's popular "Insight" program, hosted by award winning journalist John Ferrugia, include:

- October 10-16: "The Rural Colorado Debate" featuring the candidates for Governor.
- October 17-23: Various state level candidates and statewide issues.
- October 24-30: The voters of a rural Colorado area discuss the 2016 election outcome and more.

These programs can be viewed by Charter/Spectrum cable customers in Durango on channels 191 and 981, by those watching over-the-air TV by antenna, on channel 10.1 in Durango and channel 30.3 in Montezuma and Dolores counties. The programs will also be streamed live by DGOV at DurangoGov.org/DGOV. All broadcasts will be in high definition.
