NEWS RELEASE

Library Community Champion Award Nominations Now Open

Durango, CO: At the Friends of the Durango Public Library Annual Meeting on March 14, the Durango Public Library Advisory Board announced that they are accepting nominations for the Library Community Champion Award now through May 31, 2019. The mission of the Library Community Champion Award is stated:

“Recognizing that the success of any public library is enhanced and sustained by dedicated citizens, the Durango Public Library Advisory Board will single out certain individuals for particular appreciation through its Library Community Champion initiative. The awarding of this personal distinction honors singular achievement and commitment on behalf of the Library and, in turn, the community.”

Past honorees include Beverly Darmour, Lynne Hardy and Steve Redding. Please visit the Library’s website at www.durangogov.org/library to submit your nomination online.
