NEWS RELEASE

Artist Karen Harms Offers Art Classes at the Durango Recreation Center

Durango, CO: Local Durango artist Karen Harms will offer Exploring Acrylics art classes at the Durango Community Recreation Center in January and February. Karen brings fun and discovery to her classes, where all ability levels are welcome. Karen will focus on creative painting techniques, color theory, and composition and design principles. Each class will include a short lecture on specific subject matter followed by painting and individualized instruction.

Karen Harms is an established artist, who lives and works in Durango, CO. Her art is featured in public and private collections, nationally and internationally. She gained her reputation painting abstract non-objective and landscape based semi-abstracts. As a Durango resident, she also enjoys painting the mountains and Colorado landscapes. Karen works with color, movement, shape and emotion and carries her landscapes to carrying degrees of abstraction.

Karen will offer two eight week classes at the Recreation Center from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays for $120 each. The Tuesday class will cater to homeschooled students and the Friday class will be open to all adults. Supplies are not included in the class price. Students will need to contact Karen prior to class for a list of supplies.
