

Elections

City Council 2007 Election

On April 3, 2007, the Regular Election for the City of Durango was held. Citizens elected three City Councilors out of a field of eight. The two candidates receiving the most votes were declared as having been elected to terms of (4) four-years. The candidate receiving the third most votes was elected to a (2) two-year term.

Leigh Meigs and Michael Rendon were elected to City Council to serve the (4) four-year terms.

Scot Graham was elected to City Council to serve the (2) two-year term.

A total of 3,880 ballots were counted resulting in a 59% voter turnout.