¹ J. M. Nicholas resigned as City Marshal on 2/9/1895 after initially refusing Council's demand that he do so on 2/7/1895; his resignation was recommended by the Health and Police Committee on 2/5/ 1895.

² On 6/2/1896, Charles W. Airy was elected Fire Chief, replacing George Goodman. The City Council regular meeting minutes of 8/5/1896 state that W. A. Reese was acting as the attorney of Mr. Airy, whom he represented as having been illegally removed by Council. The minutes of the Council's special meeting on 8/14/1896 mention that Airy was suing the City. Goodman was elected Chief at that meeting, by a vote of 5 for Goodman and 3 for Airy.

⁴ When the City temporarily switched to a Commissioner form of government in 1915 through a change in the City Charter by special election in 1915 (cf. the 1912 proposed Charter, in the Historical cabinet, and the regular Council meeting minutes of 7/1/1915), some of the titles changed. The position of City Manager was created, and the presiding council member (usually, but not always, the Mayor or the Mayor Pro Tem) was then called the President (and also a Vice President). Paragraph 8 in Article III of the City Charter of 1915 specified that the Commissioners would elect from among themselves a Mayor, who would be president of the City Council.

⁵ A City of Durango special election was held on 6/29/1915.

⁶ On 11/10/1953 Council appointed the law firm of Emigh & Emigh as the City attorneys, and designated Alonzo M. "Al" Emigh (pronounced like Amy) as the City Attorney and his brother Frederic B. "Fred" Emigh as the Assistant City Attorney. Their father, A. M. Emigh, was City Attorney along with B. W. Ritter in 1924-1928. Sometime between June 22 and July 6 of 1965, Fred became the City Attorney. Fred's brother, Alonzo, died in Durango in April of 1971.

¹⁰ The municipal water and sewer services were housed in the Department of Public Works prior to its configuration as a standalone Utilities Department, which was established after restructuring in 2012 following the retirement of Jack Rogers. In general, the Manager or Director roles in Utilities have overseen the operation of the Department as a whole while the superintendents supervised day-to-day operations of their divisions (Water Treatment, Collections and Distribution, Wastewater Treatment)

Al Patscheck was the Superintendent of the Water and Wastewater Division, which at the time included the Water Treatment Plant as well as the Wastewater Treatment Plant. He was succeeded by Gerald Mestas. When Mr. Mestas left, sometime in the late 1980s, Jonathan Green had a brief tenure. Tom Huston served in the role during the 1990s and resigned as Manager around 2000; he was replaced by Chris Bucher as the Water and Wastewater Manager, but the position was not filled thereafter.

From 2012, when the restructuring took place making Utilities a standalone department, Steve Salka was hired as the Utilities Director, until his resignation in 2017 due to disagreements as to the management of the multi-year Santa Rita sewer plant replacement project and other matters. The first Assistant Utilities Director, appointed in 2017, was Jarrod Biggs, who currently supervises all three utilities divisions, with Levi Lloyd serving as the Director of two departments (City Operations and Utilities)--a role akin to the previous Director of Public Works.

In Water Treatment, during the 1990s the Water Treatment Plant supervisor was Ambrose Hickman. After Hickman retired, his successor was Mike Amato, followed by Robert Ludwig. Mr. Ludwig was succeeded by Dave Ferguson, who currently serves as the Water Treatment Superintendent.

Within Collections and Distribution, after a second stint as Acting Water and Wastewater Superintendent Mark Gallegos was appointed to the Superintendent position on October 1990. Gallegos continued until the time of his death of a heart attack in 2011 and was replaced by as the Water and Wastewater superintendent by Joe Coleman. Following the departure of Joe Coleman, Patrick Farrell filled the role of Collections and Distribution Superintendent and continues in that role today. At the Wastewater Treatment Facility, as of 1995 the Wastewater Plant supervisor was Roger Miller. Miller resigned as the Wastewater Treatment Plant superintendent and was replaced by Arlin Lieurance, who was followed by John Sandhaus in 2009. Sandhaus was succeeded by the current Superintendent, Jeff Whitman, in 2015, ending July 2019.

¹² On December 31, 2001 the Durango Fire Department was decommissioned from the City of Durango after 107 years (1894 to 2001) as a career organization. On January 1, 2002 the Durango Fire and Rescue Authority began--consolidating the City's Fire Dept. with two volunteer fire agencies (Animas and Hermosa Cliff), along with the ambulance from Mercy Hospital. The Durango Fire Protection District was created on January 1, 2014.

¹⁶ For newspaper reporting on the end of the work of Finance Director Julie Brown with the City, see the Durango Herald articles dated 10/15, 19 and 22/ 2019, 11/19/2019, 4/10/2020, 7/8, 9, 14 and 28/2020, 8/16/2020, and 4/18/2021.

¹⁷ On 3/10/2021 in a mass email the City Manager announced that he had combined the Utilities and Engineering departments to be overseen by a Public Works Director effective 3/17/2021, and had reclassified the vacant City Engineer position to the Public Works Director position; he had also re-created the Public Works Department and had created two new departments –Information Services, and Media and Community Engagement–though Council had not adopted an Ordinance to make those departmental changes)

For a chronological list of Durango's Town/City attorneys, judges and police chiefs since 1881, turn back to pages 106-110 at the end of Chapter 5 re: Municipal Court. Dirk Nelson is the 28th person to serve as Durango's City Attorney. Mr. J. P. De Mattos was the first, in 1881.

Bradford, Byron	Hatfield, E. Ellison "Tommy"	Moody, George W.

Duthie, Robert	Knowles, John	Reese, Willis A.
Ellis, P. G.	McCloskey, J. (in 1884; apparently, but not assuredly, not the same person as Reese)	Ritter, B. W.
Emigh, Alonzo M. "Al"	McCloskey, Reese (in 1888 and subsequent years)	Russell and Reese
Emigh, Frederic B.	McKelvey, R. Franklin	Smith, David P.
Engley, Eugene		Spickard, John F.
Galbreath, O. S.		Sumner, George T.

On 11/10/1953, Council appointed the law firm of Emigh & Emigh as the City attorneys, and designated Alonzo M. "Al" Emigh (pronounced like "Amy") as the City Attorney and his brother Frederic B. "Fred" Emigh as the Assistant City Attorney. Their father, A. M. Emigh, was City Attorney along with B. W. Ritter in 1924-1928. Sometime between June 22 and July 6 of 1965, Fred became the City Attorney. Fred's brother, Alonzo, died in Durango in April of 1971. (Source: David P. Smith)

Chronology of directors of other City of Durango departments and entities (grouped alphabetically by name of department or function)

Durango-La Plata County Airport Manager [title changed to Aviation circa July-December of 1991]

M. J. Parsons (? – to at least 4/5/1949) (he was the caretaker--that was the term in the City Council minutes of 1/22/1946—and, later, his title was manager of the Municipal Airport where the College was later built; Council increased his salary by $20/month effective 8/1/1948) (the same 8/10/1948 Council meeting also considered the heating at the [new] City and County airport; the 4/5/1949 Council minutes mentioned both the roof on the administration building at the new airport and Parsons as the manager of the old Municipal Airport)

Karl Link [mentioned once--6/10/1952—in the City Council minutes as the former manager of the municipal airport]

Vern [or Verne] Carlson [the 8/31/1948 City Council minutes mention Vern Carlson as an Airport Manager at the new City and County airport, but that was in the context of his increasing Monarch Airlines' rent—the move toward the new location began in May of 1946 and the first scheduled commercial flight was inaugurated by Monarch Airlines on 11/27/1946; the minutes of the 5/25/1948 Council meeting referred to Carlson as the Monarch Airlines Station Agent; the 12/6/1973 Airport Commission minutes mention Verne Carlson as Frontier Airlines staff in Denver; thus Carlson was not the manager of the Airport per se.]

Charles Murray (effective 7/7/1942, per City Council minutes: “Mayor Fankhauser moved that Chas. Murray be appointed Airport Manager, Jack Turner as Assistant Manager and R. F. Keeling as Assistant Manager”; the end date of Murray's tenure as Airport Director has not yet been discovered in the records)

Bruce Lund (9/10/1946 per City Council minutes – end date not yet determined) [the Airport Commission's 6/3/1974 minutes mention Mr. Lund as knowledgeable about the use of the Airport's well since 1946]
