Iron Horse & Cycling Training

Iron Horse Training is a comprehensive program for people planning to ride any of the Iron Horse Bicycle Classic events, as well as for those who want to improve their cycling abilities.

This proven training program includes four months of indoor cycling classes, road riding skills workshops and a comprehensive outdoor ride schedule for the months of April and May. Participants receive weekly emails with information on topics covered by the coaches in the cycling classes, such as the latest cycling tips and techniques, injury prevention, nutrition, recovery, strength training, group riding and more. It's all done in a fun and supportive atmosphere! The indoor training program begins December 7, 2020 and ends March 26, 2021. Besides indoor cycling classes, the program also includes yoga classes twice a week until May 28, 2021. Participants will then receive a training schedule of road rides for the months of April and May. Several road riding skills workshops and scheduled road rides are also included.
